

BMW 328 Touring Coupé I In 1940 the BMW 328 Touring Coupé won the Mille Miglia. 66 years and extensive restoration work later, the vintage model is lining up at the start again. Over the decades this model received seven different noses before finally having its original face restored.

44

The road to the BMW R 100 RS I 30 years ago BMW unveiled the world's first production motorcycle with a frame-fixed full fairing, though the beginnings of BMW's fairing development go back all the way to the 1930s. As so often, the impulse came from the motorsport arena. BMW was also able to glean experience with a variety of fairings supplied to the police and other public agencies, all of which flowed into the R 100 RS of 1976.